

Gaspard is a Technical Advisor for Program and Finance at AKWOS, an organization that promotes women's empowerment through sports in Rwanda. He has a Master's degree in Education Management and Administration and a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Business Studies. He is also a former teacher and a graduate of philosophy and social science. He has worked with various international NGOs on education, child protection, and gender-based violence projects, such as the Play To Learn Program, the Play for the Advancement of Quality of Education Project in Right To Play, and the Ubuntu Care Project within Federation Handicap International. He is passionate about making a positive difference in the lives of children and women in his country and beyond.