

Godelive Mujawabega is a Field officer who likes to work with the people in social affairs through sports. She has been among the first Feminine's football coaches in Rwanda. She likes paying attention to anyone, young or old, and always glad to put into someone shoes whenever a problem occurs and finds a solution to it. Godelive is a Diploma holder in Sociology. Due to various trainings related to the well-being of the community. She has experience in working with the community, especially women (Fighting violence against them, solving family conflicts, combating and preventing teenage pregnancies, and encouraging women to participate into sport activities).

Godelive has 20 years of experience in coaching and teaching sports as an AKWOS Staff.