

I NGABONZIZA Prince James,

Rwanda by nationality holding a position of communication INTERN in AKWOS.

I have Bachelor's in Journalism and communication studies. As a motivated individual prepared to progress in the communication career, the aim is to bring a positive impact to Africa through fresh knowledge and unique global perspectives. Through undertaking diverse opportunities and joining various adventures that engage people from different backgrounds, I have acquired skills and knowledge that build interpersonal skills, developed professional and work ethics. I as Prince I am confident in the achievement of a successful career in the field of communication. Have values integrity, discipline, and responsibility and I am exceptional team player with impeccable creative abilities when it comes to problem-solving. I have taken my courses in Institut Catholique de Kabgayi, Muhanga-Rwanda, 2021-2023 Bachelor degree in Journalism and Communication Studies.

WORK EXPERIENCE & VOLUNTEERING

Azizi Life – Manchester University, Storytelling and Marketing Team Volunteer, July 2023- August 2023

- Created and compiled impact stories and marketing content for social media and website
- Designed and set up the store for sales and income maximization
- Jointly worked with University of Manchester students to assess the impact of the organization on the artisans and the community through interviews and surveys

Voice of Africa, Sports news Broadcast

- Researched, reported, and delivered engaging sports news and stories on radio, ensuring accuracy, timeliness, and audience engagement.

Radio Huguka, Sports news Broadcast Intern,

- Hosted and presented entertaining showbiz content on radio, conducting interviews, delivering news updates, and engaging listeners with lively and engaging discussions

TRAINING & CERTIFICATES

- Certificate of Appreciation awarded by Peace Corps.
 - Exemplary camper with outstanding, leadership skills, sportsmanship, enthusiasm and displayed incredible selflessness toward society development.
- Certificate of Participation awarded by PAX Press, Rwanda Media Program & FOJO Media Institute
 - Participation in an extended learning experience on how to maintain gender equality and sensitivity as a pillar of building professionalism in media
- Certificate of Appreciation awarded by Azizi Life
 - Participating in community-centered volunteering with Manchester University students to create new strategies for marketing and increasing sales of local arts for the development of Rwanda's local arts industry.