

Triphine Murekatete is a project coordinator at AKWOS.

She is a Diploma holder in Leadership and hospitality Management and Bachelor degree holder in Travel and Tourism Management. Her demonstration of team work spirit makes her an incredible employee that any organization would not hesitate to hire. Triphine has carried out an internship in RwandaAir specifically in Passenger Handling department where she was attached to customer service. She was French Language Teacher in Rwanda Tourism College, and lastly worked in several departments such as Admissions Associate (Admissions and Recruitment department, Operations Officer, and Receptionist in the Akilah Institute for Women. During her leisure time, she reads books and likes enjoying flowers. Triphine likes to provide support to other people who need it the most.